LAS VEGAS – The Spinners will bring its famous soul music to the Eastside Cannery Casino Hotel on Saturday, March 25, 2017 at 8:00 p.m. with hits such as “It’s A Shame” and “I’ll Be Around.”

For more than 50 years, The Spinners have sung the band’s classic hits and the group still tours with original member Henry Fambrough. Widely known as the greatest soul group of the early '70s, the group created a body of work that defined the lush, seductive sound of Philly soul. Ironically, the band was from Detroit where they originally formed as a doo wop group during the late '50s. Throughout the '60s, the Spinners shifted to R&B and pop and by the mid-'60s, they had signed with Motown Records.

After “It’s A Shame” became a hit in 1970 and Phillippe Wynne became the new lead singer, the group signed with Atlantic Records where they developed a distinctive sound with Wynne's breathtaking falsetto and the group's intricate vocal harmonies. With a detailed web of horns, strings, backing vocals, and lightly funky rhythms, The Spinners recorded several soul classics, including "I'll Be Around," "Could It Be I'm Falling in Love," "Mighty Love," "Ghetto Child," "Then Came You," "Games People Play," and "The Rubberband Man."

The Spinners will perform at the Events Center inside Eastside Cannery Casino & Hotel, located at 5255 Boulder Highway, Las Vegas, on Saturday, March 25, 2017, at 8:00pm. Tickets start at $14.95 and are available at www.ticketmaster.com. For more information visit <http://www.eastsidecannery.com/entertainment>.
