Cannery Casino Resorts Appoints Salvatore Semola to Vice President and General Manager of Eastside Cannery Casino & Hotel and Peter Maksymec to Vice President and General Manager of Rampart Casino

LAS VEGAS – January 31, 2008 – Cannery Casino Resorts, LLC appointed Salvatore Semola to vice president and general manager of Eastside Cannery Casino & Hotel and Peter Maksymec to vice president and general manager of Rampart Casino, company officials announced today. Semola and Maksymec will report directly to Cannery Casino Resorts chief operating officer and chief financial officer, Tom Lettero.

“Both Sal Semola and Pete Maksymec have been great assets to our team in the time they have been with the company,” said Tom Lettero, chief operating officer and chief financial officer of Cannery Casino Resorts, LLC. “We look forward to their continued growth and success with Cannery Casino Resorts.”

Semola’s experience covers Native American, public and privately held casino ventures. Before joining Cannery Casino Resorts, Semola was the chief operating officer of Greektown Casino in Detroit, Michigan. Semola has also held senior management positions with Circus Circus Enterprises in Elgin, Illinois as well as Station Casino in Kansas City, Missouri, Casino of the Sun in Tucson, Arizona, Reno Hilton Hotel and Casino in Reno, Nevada and Silver Eagle Casino Riverboat in East Dubuque, Illinois. In 2003, the Casino Management Association named Semola “Gaming Professional of the Year for the Eastern United States.”

Semola earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Hotel Administration from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. Semola also holds an Associates Degree of Applied Science in Resort Occupations-Casino Management from College of Southern Nevada.

Maksymec began his career in the accounting department at the original MGM Grand Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada. He has served as casino coordinator/administrator at Caesars Palace and casino controller at the Dunes Hotel and Country Club also located in Las Vegas, Nevada. Maksymec became the controller at the Nevada Palace Hotel and Casino in 1985 overseeing regulatory compliance, marketing and surveillance. Maksymec transferred to Palace Casino in Biloxi, Mississippi, as property manager and vice president of slot operations. In 1996, Maksymec returned to Las Vegas to join the staff of the Flamingo Hilton as assistant director of slot operations.

Maksymec returned to Nevada Palace in 1997 as general manager and has guided the resort operations through significant business advancements. Maksymec will continue his success at Rampart Casino.
